

Help Yourself. Help Others.

Conference on Volunteerism & Social Responsibility

AT NO COST...
FREE!

LEAD Credit offered!

Registration begins at 9:15 a.m.

Breakfast, lunch and a t-shirt are included.

IPad Mini
Prize
for Best Essay on:
“How Does
Helping Others
Help You”

SUNY Oneonta's Morris Conference Center
Saturday, November 3, 2018
10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Registration begins at 9:15 a.m.

An opportunity for students to learn about, connect with, and contribute to local, national, and global efforts to help make the world a better place.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Stephen Post, SUNY Stonybrook
“It's Good to be Good—Understanding the Giver's Glow ”

~~Work~~ “FUN” Shops

Laura Reyda

“Acupuncture in the Amazon: How Traditional Medicine Practices Cross
“Cultural Boundaries”

Samantha Pepe and Skylar Cloud, SUNY Students
“Home Restoration and Sun Salutations”

Dr. Jack Tessier, SUNY Delhi
“Volunteerism in Sustainable Communities”

John Arlet, Friends of Recovery
“What's in it...?”

Nikola Hamilton, MSC, SUNY Delhi
“Food Insecurity on your College Campus”

Terra Butler, Super Heroes in Ripped Jeans
“Help us Help them”

Rachel Kornhauser, SUNY Oneonta
“Living Sustainability at SUNY”

Dr. Julie Dostal, LEAF
“How to Use Your Voice Effectively With Elected Officials”

Nicholas Lane, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, SUNY Delhi
“Volunteerism Begins With you”

This is FREE!!!! To let us know you are coming or for more information, call (607) 436-2098

Sponsors: SUNY Oneonta - Center for Social Responsibility and Community
SUNY Delhi -The O'Connor Center for Community Engagement
SUNY Cobleskill—Center for Campus Engagement
Campus Compact of New York & Pennsylvania